

TITLE :

Nonlinear dynamics of infection spreading in tissues

ABSTRACT :

The immune system is regulated by multiple processes at various levels of biological organization. In this lecture we will discuss the interaction of viral infection with the immune response. We will use multi-scale models and delay reaction-diffusion equations in order to study nonlinear dynamics of infection spreading in tissues.